As we predicted, more caseworkers have led to more children being removed from their families. Indiana needs the federal dollars, so what now: 60% increase in children removed. Judges overruled by DCS. Larger case loads for public defenders. More wild, false accusations by DCS. Charles Brown and other representatives don't want to listen to victims of DCS, so when there is an ombudsman bill, they will try to water it down until it's worthless. "Indiana moves backward at full stream," says Richard Wexler, National Coalition for Child Protection Reform. Within the next four years we can expect to see more families destroyed, more children removed, more unconstitutional rulings from the courts. You will also see more lawsuits filed, costing you, the taxpayer, millions. When will it end? When more citizens speak out, when lawmakers are hit with phone calls day and night, when thousands rally outside the statehouse. WHEN THERE IS ACCOUNTABILITY WITHIN OUR STATE GOVERNMENT.

What I think of Child Protection agencies -- you could fill the lakes with my bad thoughts, and fill a bottle cap with my good thoughts of them!!!! -- Another CROOKED waste of money that also ruins as many or more lives as it saves!!!

CPS is a joke. My daughters rental home caught fire in Washington a few nights ago while she was at work. Her kids were home with a baby sitter. The fire marshall said the cause of the fire was due to wiring in the wall. The same complaint Jamie had told her landlord about for the last few months. Friday, CPS went to the school, questuioned jamies son about the fire and asked if his mom left him home alone very often. Then CPS went to Jamies job after questioning the kids and babysitter telling Jamie she needed to come in to thier office and make a plan of care with them She still has no idea why CPS would get involved or why she has to report to them. BY the way, never did they offer her help with the loss of articles they lost in the fire.

All parents should know this!!!!!! If you take a signed note to the school office at the beginning of the year [and ALL SHOULD - just in case], no one may speak to or question your children without your notification and permission!!!
DO IT NOW!!! [in today's world, be prepared for anything or anyone!]

Agreed. I remember reading sometime ago the uproar and objections to closing the campus and keeping the kiddos on the premises during lunch. Good idea in the times in which we live.

I am very concerned for my daughter about the CPS matter. What if they take her children? Can they make up accusations? It's proven she does not leave them alone when she works. She pays 300.00 per month for a bay sittter. She does not collect welfare, she works hard deposite the problems that she is ahving. Any suggestions on how I can help her and protect them from her? the meeting takes place today, in one hour at her home.

I hope your daughter pays the babysitter by check. The cancelled checks would go a long way toward proving she does not leave the children at home alone.

I think she pays cash. But the babysitters parents vouch for how much and how often she pasy the babysitter. I'm not sure how you go from a hous fire to CPS, but we will find out. Jamie would never leave her children unattended. She has a bay with asthma that need close attention paid to her.

I'm worried. Jamie is very naive and she will do whatever they say, sign whatever they tell her too. I told her not to talk to them. I'll keep you updated.
